- 2:30 Mass. Depart. You are welcome to stay longer for private prayer, reflection and enjoy our grounds.

In our environment of growing social polarization and division, in which our Christian faith is so often used as fuel for such polarization and divisions, many people see our faith in Christ as overly defensive and political, as life-depleting. But our faith in Christ was borne to be life-giving, as we have been experiencing this Easter season. What does it mean to be alive in our faith in a Christ-like way? What do life-giving Christians in the spirit of the Resurrection give witness towards?

Suggested Offering: $ 50.00 per person

Includes lunch and coffee/tea break.

This special Day of Reflection will be facilitated by Fr. Trevor Scott, SJ

Fr. Trevor was ordained a priest in 2013 with the Society of Jesus. After his theological studies at Toronto's Regis College, Fr. Trevor was assigned to work in the Ignatian spirituality apostolate. His ministry in the spirituality apostolate consisted in creating and conducting Ignatian based retreats and spirituality workshops, as well as providing spiritual direction to individual people. He also served as the Ecclesial Assistant to the Christian Life Community (CLC) of Canada – an international lay religious association whose members strive to live out the Ignatian charism in their daily lives; Over the last year, Fr. Trevor attended his Tertianship year in Dublin, Ireland. Upon his return to Canada, he has been with the Jesuit Forum for Social Faith and Justice in Toronto as Director for Ignatian Identity and Mission.
