

Walking with the Disciples on the Road to Emmaus.

Fr. Trevor Scott, SJ

April 28th - 30th, 2023

SILENT IGNATIAN WEEKEND FOR MEN & WOMEN

The Easter season is a time of experiencing the risen Christ. But as we know from life's experiences it is not easy to experience joy immediately after disappointment, such as from the loss and death of loved ones. It takes time, loving wisdom, and a depth of imagination to begin to see hope for the future... the very experience of the disciples on the road to Emmaus. 'Walking With the Disciples on the Road to Emmaus' will prayerful and imaginatively explore this dynamic resurrection experience of the disciples and how it can help renew our own faith filled lives in the midst of disappointment and hopefulness.

Fr. Trevor Scott, SJ was ordained priest in 2013 with the Society of Jesus. After his theological studies at Toronto's Regis College in the Autumn of 2014, Trevor was assigned to work in the Ignatian spirituality apostolate. His ministry in the spirituality apostolate consisted in creating and conducting Ignatian based retreats and spirituality workshops, as well as providing spiritual direction to individual people. Trevor also served as the Ecclesial Assistant to the Christian Life Community (CLC) of Canada – an international lay religious association whose members strive to live out the Ignatian charism in their daily lives; Over the last year, Trevor attended his Tertiarity year in Dublin, Ireland. Upon his recent return to Canada Trevor has been with the Jesuit Forum for Social Faith and Justice in Toronto as Director for Ignatian Identity and Mission.
