DAY OF REFLECTION

with Fr. Trevor Scott, SJ

Appreciation of the Ignatian Charism of Discernment

"Both Adolfo Nicholas, former Superior General of the Society of Jesus, and Pope Francis, seek to foster a church community of greater wisdom and depth that is more integrated and prayerfully mindful of the issues of today's contemporary world. This day of reflection will focus upon how we can respond to our world today in a more Christ-like way through the Ignatian charism of wisdom and depth as intuited by these two well-respected contemporary Jesuits."

Fr. Trevor Scott, SJ was ordained priest in 2013 with the Society of Jesus. After his theological studies at Toronto's Regis College in the Autumn of 2014, Trevor was assigned to work in the Ignatian spirituality apostolate. His ministry in the spirituality apostolate consisted in creating and conducting Ignatian based retreats and spirituality workshops, as well as providing spiritual direction to individual people. Trevor also served as the Ecclesial Assistant to the Christian Life Community (CLC) of Canada – an international lay religious association whose members strive to live out the Ignatian charism in their daily lives; Trevor has been with the Jesuit Forum for Social Faith and Justice in Toronto as Assistant for Ignatian Identity and Mission / Facilitation Co-Ordinator. Trevor also teaches at Regis College / University or Toronto as a sessional professor, focusing upon the relationship of Ignatian spirituality and contemporary culture.
