SILENT IGNATIAN RETREAT FOR MEN

January 22 - 24, 2027

with Fr. Michael Kolarcik, SJ

Prayer: Speaking and Listening to God in the Psalms.

Fr. Michael has chosen four Psalms, one for each talk which present a pattern in the Psalter: Lament, Thanksgiving, Praise, Trust and then back to Lament.

One of the questions he will explore in each of the Psalms is to read and pray, "How do we listen to God in prayer when it seems we are doing all the talking?"

Fr. Michael Kolarcik, SJ is the Rector of the Regis Jesuit Community in Toronto. He returned last year after serving nine years as the Rector of Pontifical Biblical Institute in Rome. As a long-time faculty member, Fr. Kolarcik values the role the larger Regis St. Michael's community plays in preparing for both lay and ordained ministry in the Church. Friendships within this diverse community enhance intercultural sensitivity and the ability to accompany others with insight and respect.

Yet even while in an academic setting, his pastoral heart remains close to the people he serves. He has led Ignatian retreats for lay people as well as Jesuits, priests, and bishops. We look forward to welcoming Fr. Michael back to Manresa to facilitate our January Men's Ignatian Retreat.
